

Your Path to Success: Tips for Starting Strong This Spring

Sign up for RLC
tutoring, coaching & study groups
early, to set
yourself up for success.

Record all
important dates
and deadlines for your courses right
away.

Meet with an SAS
advisor to discuss your plans and timeline for graduation.

Declare your
major & minor.
Meet with your departments'
advisors.

Meet with a Career Advisor to discuss building
your resume &
gaining skills.

Take care of yourself. Student Health offers
many services to help you stay healthy.

Check out the technology
resources you can download and use
for free.

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 5 - JANUARY 2021

SAS JUNIOR MONTHLY

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW, WHEN YOU NEED TO KNOW IT

A NEW YEAR, NEW SEMESTER: Reflect on what worked (and what didn't) last semester.

2020 is over, but you may have some lingering emotions about your academics and fall semester. It's important to take stock of how you feel. Do you regret sleeping in so much? Not giving your paper an extra review before submitting? Wish you didn't procrastinate? Take charge of 2021, and create goals that work for you. We'll be sending you monthly tips and pointers to help you stay informed and on track. SAS Advisors are available on LiveChat weekdays 9 AM - 5 PM to answer any questions you have, and we continue to offer appointments through winter break if you need a longer discussion before the semester starts.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

ADD/DROP REGISTRATION

It's time to finalize your schedule. Confirm you are registered for at least 12 credits. Follow up with departments if you were seeking special permission before break. Don't forget, you can make changes through the add/drop period.

P/NC POLICY EXTENDED

RU announced a continuation of the P/NC Policy through Spring 2021. Read the FAQs developed by the Office of the Provost to learn more.

Deadlines to Request P/NC:

Fall 2020 - Jan 12

Winter 2021 - Jan 27

Spring 2021 - May 19

TEACH A FIGS SECTION

Apply now to be a Fall 2021 FIGS instructor. This is a great way to gain valuable skills, meet new people, and give back to your RU community. Applications are due Jan 22.